Dear Mr. President,

LETTER OF CONGRATULATIONS

On behalf of the Executive Council of the African Bar Association (AFBA), I write to heartily congratulate you on your election and assumption of office as President of the International Bar Association (IBA).

This no doubt is a historic moment for Africa and indeed for us in the African Bar Association as we have been tracking and supporting your progress in the Global body.

Mr. President, your election is a testimony that hardwork, persistence, diligence and dogged pursuit of truth and Justice is still profitable on the long run. We thank you for making yourself available, a good material from Africa and a Global recognition for the African Legal Community.

While praying for and wishing you a very successful tenure of office full of giant strides, the African Bar Association pledges its support and sue for co-operation between the two bodies.

Meanwhile, please accept the assurances of our best wishes and high regards.

Yours truly,

Hannibal Uwaifo
