PRESS STATEMENT

THE AFRICAN BAR ASSOCIATION RECOGNIZES THE FEDERATION OF AFRICAN LAW STUDENTS (welcomes formation)

The Leadership of the African Bar Association (AFBA) welcomes the Formation and Inauguration of the Federation of African Law Students (FALAS). As an umbrella body of Law Students in Africa, AFBA urges the Executive of FALAS led by Mr. Emmanuel Nwobodo to use the opportunity to unify all Law Students in Africa as the future of the Legal Profession in the Continent.

The African Bar Association (AFBA) believes the structure of FALAS should be used to advance Students Training and Exchange Programs. Mentorship and Internship will be supported. The African Bar Association (AFBA) has given formal recognition to FALAS and are invited to attend African Bar Association (AFBA) Programmes, organize events within Conferences and other pre-arranged events.

Mr. Hannibal Uwaifo the President of The African Bar Association (AFBA) on behalf of the Executive and Governing Councils wishes the President of FALAS, the Executives and all their members success of this new body.

Thank you.
