AFRICAN BAR ASSOCIATION MOURNS LATE MR. INUWA ABDUL-KADIR

"Cowards die many times before their death, but the Valiant never taste of death but once. Of all the wonders I have yet seen, it seems most strange to me that men should fear, seeing that death is a necessary end, will come when it will come".

_____ William Shakespeare _____

Inuwa Abdul-Kadir, Barrister-at-Law, Seasoned Legal Practitioner, former Attorney-General and Commissioner for Justice, Sokoto State, Life Member of the Council of the African Bar Association (AFBA) and Chairman, Nigerian Forum of the African Bar Association.

This immortal words of William Shakespeare is very true of you.

Alive, Inuwa fought fearlessly, was never a coward and knew how to start and end a battle. Admirable in presentations, excellent in presenting arguments whether Legal or social. Very friendly and courteous to colleagues and Grand Master of Political permutations.

He helped build the new African Bar Association and worked tirelessly for the success of the programmes and activities. He got African Bar Association beyond expectations and has challenged us all to reach for the stars. He visioned and worked towards a broad and vibrant African Legal Fraternity and he spent resources advocating for the betterment of the Legal profession and for Good Governance in Nigeria and in Africa.

He was very respectful to friends and foes but feared none. A very strong character, a very compassionate Leader and Goal-getter. Mr. Inuwa Abdul-Kadir brought many shining ideas that developed and sustained the Nigerian Forum of the African Bar Association which he chaired very well till his passing to eternity.

A former Honourable Minister of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, Frontline Politician and former Vice Chairman of North-West of Nigeria's ruling All Progressives Congress (APC).

The African Bar Association mourns this Great and illustrious son of Africa, an astute Bar Leader, a strong voice for African Social and Legal emancipation and a friend of the oppressed. You live forever in our hearts.

Adieu Chairman of AFBA, Nigerian Forum; Adieu our devoted Strategist. Rest in Paradise till we meet to part no more.

Lagos, Nigeria, 9th July, 2020.

Hannibal Uwaifo
President of the African Bar Association
